Explore the historic city centre its magnificent architecture and fascinating social history in Then &

Now and The Rand Club.

Marvel at magnificent views and the baronial homes that command our ridges in The Baker Tradition, The Plunge Down the Ridge, The Wilds and Emoyeni to Villa Arcadia.

Delight in opulent interiors of beautifully restored landmarks on

The View and Romantic Northwards.

See the past in living colour

in The Shifting Landscape, African Jim and Joburg on Film.

30 September: Morning

10h00 to 13h00

Forest Town Walking Tour

Nestled between its more imposing neighbours, Forest Town has some of the earliest and finest examples of suburban architecture in Johannesburg.

10h30 to 11h30

The Shifting Landscape Illustrated Talk

Joburg is uncomfortable with permanence, and in a mere 131 years our City has undergone startling changes. We explore what has gone, what has survived, and what may be in an illustrated talk.

11h00 to 14h00

Emoyeni to Villa Arcadia Walking Tour

We explore Parktown's grandest mansions, from Emoyeni to Villa Arcadia via the gardens of the Church of Latter Day Saints.

30 September: Afternoon

12h30 to 14h30

The View House Tour

The View is Parktown's oldest surviving mansion, and is home to the Transvaal Scottish. Be amazed at its beautifully restored interiors, and the artefacts of one of the City's most illustrious regiments.

14h00 to 15h00

In The Attic Classroom Children's Tour

Join us in an Edwardian attic classroom and experience what school was like 100 years ago.

14h45 to 17h00

The Rand Club Walking Tour

We explore the magnificent architecture of the financial district before entering the splendid Rand Club. Hear about its history and be amazed by its opulent interiors, and then enjoy a drink at the longest bar counter on the continent!

15h30 to 16h30

African Jim Screening

Described as "The first film to express the black experience in the City of Gold", this 1949 film vividly portrays the City we love.

01 October: Morning

09h00 to 12h00

The Baker Tradition Walking Tour

We explore Baker's contribution in a series of homes, starting at Pilrig and ending with glorious Northwards. A highlight along the way is Baker's own home, Stone House.

09h30 to 12h00

Killarney Style Walking Tour

The product of New York born Isidore Schlesinger, Killarney oozes style – whether in Schlesinger's own home, Whitehall Court, or the remarkable art deco apartments that succeeded it.

10h30 to 12h30

The Wilds Walking Tour

Joburg's most beautiful park has a new champion – artist James Delaney guides us through his 67 Owls project in this historic green space.

11h15 to 13h30

Romantic Northwards House Tour

As enchanting as José Dale Lacey herself, and designed to be seen and to entertain, Northwards is a commanding presence on the Parktown Ridge. The garden is delightful, the reception rooms beautifully furnished, and it is all in immaculate condition.

01 October: Afternoon

14h00 to 16h30

Plunge Down the Ridge Walking Tour

Experience the dramatic drop from Wynford Eagle high above Parktown Ridge to Le Thalonet, Winstead and House Schneider.

14h00 to 16h30

Then & Now Bus Tour

Though our bus will be stopping on Memory Lane, we will not permit ourselves to wallow in nostalgia - this tour not only explores the lost and forgotten, but also celebrates the reclaimed and renewed!

Our itinerary includes the retail palaces on Pritchard Street, art deco edifices of Jeppe Street, Somerset House, the Herbert Baker School of Music, and a few surprising additions to the City's streetscape.

This is a bus tour not to be missed!

15h00 to 16h00

Joburg on Film Screening

A celebration of a century of our City on celluloid, in a series of remarkable newsreels, adverts, and amateur footage.
